WHAT OTHERS SAY.

The following from our brother publishers fills a little nook in our heart that has long been vacant. Perhaps it is a weakness to be susceptible to kindness and good will, to just one little word, now and then, of encouragement and commendation. But the same feeling pervades all animal nature. So we appreciate the following:

Wm. York has enlarged his Hayti Herald and is now making it a first-class country paper. "Will-yum" is a versatile writer, edits a corking good paper and has our best wishes for success. Sikeston Hornet.

The Hayti Herald came to us last week in an enlarged form and otherwise improved. The Herald is a spicy paper, and is giving its readers the worth of their money. Blytheville (Ark.) Herald.

The Hayti Herald, by Bro. William York, came out last week enlarged from its former size. The Herald has several features that we admire, one of which is its original way of presenting facts, editorials, etc. The easiest thing in the world is to "follow the crowd," but to go ahead of the procession, and present something better than other people is no easy job. St. Francis Co. Republican.

The last issue of the Hayti Herald comes to us a six column. We congratulate Bro. York on the Herald. "May his shadow never grow less."—Bloomfield Vindicator.

The Hayti (Mo.) Herald, one of our wide awake exchanges, comes to us this week enlarged from a five column to a six column all home print and chuck full of facts, and it shows business is good in old Missouri. Success to you, Bro. York. Montoya (N. M.) Republican.

FRIENDS AND FOES.

In the controversy that has been going on for some time between certain individuals in Caruthersville and Hayti, the lawsuits, wrangles, etc., the people of Hayti have always been mindful of the fact that they have many good friends in that city who have never been a party to the ill treatment accorded us, and that we have duly honored and rewarded these friends, we have only to refer to the past primary and general election to prove.

Kindly take the Hayti vote at the late primary and general election and compare it with that of every other voting place in the county, and you cannot help but see that poor old Hayti, downtrodden and browbeaten as she was, showed her proud and honorable spirit, and with clean hands proven that she was loyal to those who were loyal to her.

Could anything be plainer? We mention this, lest you forget, for the reason that of late some of our friends over there have appeared just a little "touchy" about some things found in the Herald.

It is our enemies and not our friends who are after, and we see no reason for misunderstanding on the part of any one as to our exact position.

20,000 U. S. TROOPS

Last week the United States dispatched 20,000 troops to the Mexican border, besides a large part of our fleet to the waters on the east and west of Mexico.

The War Department has not fully explained its motive in this unusual move, but no doubt the situation is fully understood, and that the act is a wise one.

Joining our border as she does, war in Mexico becomes a serious proposition to us, and it is well enough for us to stand guard along our border and be prepared to preserve order and peace; besides, there are many rights which we must protect.

There is hardly any likelihood of trouble between the United States and the present Mexican government, but complications might arise which would cause us to invade Mexico, such as the death of President Diaz or the establishment of a new government, either of which would give us grave concern.

It is a well-known fact that the Mexicans are not capable of self-government, so the probability of a change is a serious matter.

Diaz may be called a tyrant, but it takes an iron hand to rule his people, and he has ruled them well.

DON'T TWIST OUR LANGUAGE.

And now comes the great, good and loyal Caruthersville Democrat and tells the people that the Hayti Herald wants the county's books audited.

The Herald merely asked the question—If it would be wrong—if it would do any harm—that the officials themselves would not object and that to prove their books correct would be a great honor to them and a great satisfaction to the people.

These remarks were called out by an article in the Democrat, something about some auditing company making some kind of a proposition to audit the books, which of course opened the question for discussion, and we felt that we had a perfect right to ask whether it would be wrong?

Well, we have found out.

The Democrat thinks it would be wrong.

Both the Democrat and the Herald say the officials do not object.

But, somehow, the Democrat wants it to appear that the Herald demanded an investigation, and is trying to make a record for itself as being against it.

The Democrat should quote our exact language, and then try to twist it.

The House sent the soldier pension bill to engrossment Friday. This measure provides a pension ranging from $10 to $25 per month for those who participated on either side of the civil war and who are not otherwise provided for by pension. A needy soldier totally disabled by loss of both arms, both legs, or both eyes, receives $25 per month under this bill. A loss of one arm, leg or eye, entitles the needy soldier to a pension of $15 per month, while being partially disabled otherwise merits $10 per month. There was only one vote cast against engrossing the bill.

Lumber For Sale.

All kinds of rough lumber, for building residences, barns, bridges, fences, sidewalks, etc., for sale cheap. This is an excellent grade of lumber and you should see it. P. Huffstutter, Hayti.

Pay Your Taxes Now.

All poll taxes due the city have been delinquent since Oct. 1st, and subject to penalty.

All real and personal tax due the city is delinquent after January 1st, so this is now subject to penalty.

It is not the intention of the city authorities to work a hardship upon any one, or to exact a penalty, so all who come in immediately and pay their taxes will be saved this extra cost.

After January 31st the collector will turn all unpaid tax list over to the city council, and legal steps will be taken to collect same.

Every one is urged to pay at once.

O. H. DEWEY, Ex-Officio Collector. 9

No More Whisky Advertising.

The TWICE-A-WEEK REPUBLIC of St. Louis, Mo., makes the announcement that no more whisky advertising will be printed in its paper. This will be good news to most of our readers. The TWICE-A-WEEK REPUBLIC is the oldest, biggest and best metropolitan semi-weekly newspaper in the United States, and by cutting out this line of advertising it should greatly increase its circulation in this community. The subscription price is 50 cents a year, but for a short time only they will make a special rate of three years for $1. Be sure to take advantage of this liberal offer, and by all means advise your friends and neighbors of the fact that all whiskey and liquor advertising has been discontinued and that $1 will pay for a three-year subscription. Write for free sample copy. Send orders to The St. Louis Republic, St. Louis, Mo.

A WOMAN'S HONOR.

Miss Emma Wilson, of Paragould, Ark., charged with killing Louis Meadows, a negro boot black, was held to await the action of the Green county grand jury by Magistrate Thompson, before whom the evidence was heard Monday.

Trail was made in the sum of $2,000, which was promptly filed.

Miss Wilson told her story of the killing. She said the negro had annoyed her with his attentions and that she had armed on the afternoon of the killing in order to protect herself. She said he made an insulting proposal to her and she fired.

The state went into an exhaustive investigation of the case.—Cape Girardeau Herald.

From what we have read of the above case, the girl was perfectly justifiable, and if we had more girls of that kind there would be fewer rapes and lynchings. But now comes the State of Arkansas and says that a woman cannot defend herself against these black brutes.
